He was born 1828 in Trawden, Lancashire, and died 1883 in Brierfield, Lancs.

Notes for MARY NUTTER:

Mary had John illegitimately - family hearsay was she married the father who came from a well to do family in secret, and his family had the marriage annulled. I have no proof of this. In 1841 she lived with her family in Smithy Lane, Trawden, she was a winder.

Her family moved from Trawden to Rawtenstall before John was born, maybe paid for by the father's family as in those days Rawtenstall would be a long journey from Trawden, and the Nutter family had been in Trawden for generations.

On her marriage certificate to Thomas Dewhurst her name is recorded as Nuttall, as is her son John's birth certificate.

On her death certificate Mary died from cardiac disease (dilatation) syncopy at 30 Oxford St. Brierfield registered by her son Greenwood Dewhurst of 6 Primrose St., Brierfield.
